Product name: ENDORFY Thock TKL Palm Rest
Product code: EY0E008

When you spend a lot of time at the computer, you start to appreciate the little things that elevate your work (and life) comfort. For example, a palm rest like a pillow. That's exactly what the ENDORFY Thock TKL Palm Rest is – soft padding that you can attach to your Thock TKL keyboard.

We gave it a solid magnetic mount and 6 rubber feet. You can use it without worrying about it escaping from your hands. This bad boy holds the tabletop steadily even when i0t stays a few centimeters from the keyboard. We know that there is no one-size-fits-all solution to comfort.

Elegant and low effort
The Thock Palm Rest is elegant and easy to maintain. We're proud of it, like a newbie defeating their first boss.

It's made of PU Leather that looks like real leather, but it doesn't dry out or crumble over time. It's also easy to clean – just wipe it with a damp cloth to make it look new again.

~~Ready~~ Assembled in one second
The installation of the Thock TKL Palm Rest takes a second - literally. Just attach it to the keyboard, and the palm rest will "stick" to it tightly, like posters from the 90s stuck to wallpapers. =Done and dusted! Enjoy your time without having to worry about it sliding around uncontrollably.

Magnetic mounts — the technology of the future. You'll get magnets for the keyboard's side too, with simple instructions on how to attach them to the bottom of your device. It's a great option especially if you don't like mechanical latches – magnets are invisible and withstand even strong pulls.

6 rubber feet
The Thock TKL Palm Rest sticks to your desk even during the most intense virtual battles. It doesn't slide around on the tabletop, even when placed at a distance from the keyboard (because who said that palm rests must always be in the same spot?).

This is thanks to the 6 rubber feet that we slapped on the bottom. Each of them stabilizes the Thock TKL Palm Rest and makes sure that it doesn't move on the tabletop.
