

Product name: ENDORFY Viro Infra
Product code: EY1A003

If you like warm sound full of details, you'll like ENDORFY Viro Infra. Lightweight and durable, these headphones are dope – you can hear virtual enemies even when they try to sneak up on you in stealth mode. All this thanks to the big 50 mm drivers.

Together with the ENDORFY Viro Infra, you get a detachable microphone with a pop filter. It's small (so it won't interfere with your game) but will catch everything you have to say. It also does a good job of getting rid of background noise, so no one will hear your roommate vacuuming.

Sound full of details

The devil is in the details, so it's better to hear it all. With Viro Infra on your ears, you'll notice sounds you never heard before, including the bass player of your favorite band. Listen to the breath of the enemy hiding in the bushes, aim, headshot.

It's all thanks to the massive 50 mm drivers, which we've embedded in deep earpads made of memory foam. Their closed design limits the audio leakage to the outside while ensuring that no background noise reaches you. It's just you and your music.

1, 2, 3 (detachable) microphone test

Headphones with a microphone are great. With the Viro Infra, you get a detachable mic with a pop filter. It's small, but it'll win you over with its quality in meetings, video calls, and games. You deserve to sound like a professional.

If you like to listen to music or podcasts on your way to the office, you probably don't want to poke anyone's eye out with an unruly microphone sticking out. We've got you covered — unplug it and voilà, you're all ears.

Black is the new black

Great parameters aside, the Viro Infra is simply cute – the black minimalist design suits everyone and is comfortable to wear.

With the soft memory foam earpads, your ears will be on cloud nine — snug like a bug in a rug. And because they're comfy as hell, you won't even feel how fast time flies. Seriously – we tested them over many all-nighters.
